

This is the Way

Research a famous explorer and list the countries they visited. Write a fact file about them and what they discovered.

Create a coordinates game that uses a map. It could be a treasure map.

Create a poster on purple mash explaining how to follow a route on a map.

Use an OS map to plot the route you take to school and calculate the distance.

Draw a map of a familiar location. This could be your local area or somewhere you like to visit.

Draw a political map of one of the continents. Add as many details as you can. Colour each country in a different colour.

Read a novel based on a journey:
Holes—Louis Sachar
Arrival—Shaun Tan
Hobbit—JR Tolkien
Rooftopper—Katherine Runder

Write a mnemonic to help you remember the 8 compass directions.

Use these ideas to complete your topic homework. Try and be as creative as possible.

Homework can be brought back into the classroom after the summer holidays or weekly
